This fascinating new documentary, now airing on PBS stations, explores the Church's history and the contemporary story of its unique health message. At the heart of Adventist theology is a belief that the body is the "temple of God" and living out that belief has made Adventists some of the longest living and healthiest people on the planet. Film director Martin Doblmeier will be here for this special event! Invite a friend or neighbor. Free admission.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE: Please meet next Sabbath, Oct. 9, immediately following the church service on the organ side of the sanctuary so that we can schedule and coordinate upcoming events. -- Pastor Dennis.

BAG ALERT! The Pantry needs lots of bags! Each week they need 250 plastic bags (preferably the larger, sturdier kind, like from Target). And in addition, every month they need 120 paper bags with handles. Thank you for sharing any extra bags you could spare.
