EVENSONG: On Sat., March 12 at 5:00 p.m., the Ventura Seventh-day Adventist Chorale in collaboration with the Evergreen Recorder Ensemble will present William Byrd's Mass in d minor, composed in the 1590s. Byrd (1538-1623) was an Englishman who experienced the tensions of several monarchical changes including that of the Roman Catholic Queen Mary and that of her half-sister, the Protestant Queen Elizabeth. While Byrd maintained his Roman Catholic loyalties, he provided Elizabeth's court with Anglican Church music that was considered the pinnacle of Renaissance musical art. By virtue of his musical skill, Byrd was able to navigate the stormy waters of religious turbulence that were pounding against England during his lifetime. The Mass in d minor reflects the placid yet firm resolve found in the age-old words of the Roman Catholic Mass, couched in music which displays the peak of Renaissance glory. Admission Free. Ventura SDA Church. 6300 Telephone Rd. Ventura. Call 642-5387.
