A MEMORIAL SERVICE for Virginia Rittenhouse Fagal, co-founder of the Faith For Today television ministry, will be held on Saturday, March 27, at 7:00 PM at the Loma Linda University church, 11125 Campus Street, Loma Linda. Faith For Today will be sponsoring a light reception following the service.

Virginia Fagal and her late husband, William A. Fagal, leave behind a remarkable legacy in Christian television ministry. Faith For Today began on May 21, 1950 on WABC in New York City as the first television broadcast sponsored by the Seventh-day Adventist Church. After "Meet the Press," it is the longest running television program in history. In 1952, Faith For Today started its own Bible School with Virginia as the director of that department. She remained director until she and Elder Fagal "retired" in 1981, even though they both continued to regularly assist the ministry in whatever capacity that was needed. Over the years, more than 450,000 people have completed one of Faith For Today's correspondence courses and at least 30,000 people are known to have joined the church through its ministry.

For those who would like to make a donation in memory of Virginia Fagal, please contact Faith For Today at www.faithfortoday.tv or by calling (888) 940-0062. FFT's mailing address is P.O. Box 1000, Thousand Oaks, CA 91359.
