IN MEMORY: Shirley Burton, former Seventh-day Adventist world church Communication Director who helped shape church public relations, passed away August 16 in her native Lincoln, Nebraska following complications of a stroke. She was 83. Shirley was a former member of our Camarillo SDA church while she served as Communication Director for the Pacific Union Conference. Eldon Dickinson is a cousin of Shirley's. A detailed article about her life and over four decades of denominational service is posted on the bulletin board, courtesy of Darlene Dickinson. Also posted there is a tribute by former Camarillo pastor, Lonnie Melashenko.
