Help Send a Child Back to School

Wouldn’t it be amazing if every child could start school this year with a full tummy, a new backpack and fresh school supplies?

Thanks to the generosity of the Church family and the Ventura Food Share and its sponsors, our very own Food Pantry is able to reach out and feed between 60-80 families in need each week. That includes in excess of 200 children.

At Christmas we were able to provide gifts and a Christmas party to these special kids and we hope to repeat that project again in 2011. Now that summer is here, we will be trying something even more ambitious.

We would like to raise funds for new backpacks and school supplies so that each of our Pantry kids (from elementary through high school) can select their own backpack and fill it with back-to-school essentials. Oh Happy Day!

And every month they use 120 paper bags with handles. Your generous contributions of bags, monetary gifts, food, and clothing help keep our doors open to people in need. Thank you!
