Memorial Service for Eldyn Karr,
long-time Public Relation director of the Voice of Prophecy, will be held: Sabbath, August 15, at 4:00 p.m. at the Thousand Oaks Seventh-day Adventist Church. Please come and celebrate Eldyn’s life. For more information, please call 805-499-0330.

Eldyn Karr, 68, of Newbury Park, California and formerly of Shinglehouse, Pennsylvania, passed away on Saturday, July 18, 2015. He served as Public Relations director of the Voice of Prophecy for 40 years until his retirement last December.

Eldyn was known for his intellect and impeccable memory, but his love for his church and the VOP remain his most enduring legacy. He had an incredible ability for organizing and remembering the history of almost everything — especially his beloved Voice of Prophecy. He kept personal and professional archives of the VOP.

Karr held degrees in biology and religion from Andrews University in Berrien Springs, Michigan. Karr was the public relations director for the Voice of Prophecy radio ministry from 1974 until his retirement in December, 2014. He was a talented writer and editor of the Voice of Prophecy News.
