Thank you to our dedicated club leaders and team for all they do to help train our children for the Lord. 2) For our military members and Pathfinders and all they’ve learned, and achieved in their service for Christ; to Eduardo for his wonderful message; for our military men and women and their service to our country; and to Dr. Kelvin Loh for organizing the military tribute portion of the program, creating the slide show, and providing the Adventist Veteran and Active Duty caps.

2) Thanks and praise to God for giving some of our members safe Memorial Day weekend traveling to bring encouragement to a suffering Christian brother in a prison ministry outreach, plus an added chance to visit one of our own church family, suffering much pain. We are grateful to Jesus for his admonition to visit in his Name, and for enabling us to do that.
