You considered his favorite things in the food and decorations...our hearts were touched. We want to thank Michelle Blech for being the talented pianist soothing our souls with music before and after the service. To Reini Blech and Ted Jr. we thank you for running the PA system. Thanks to All of You!

From the committee who planned the events of our 50th Anniversary Celebration reunion on Sabbath, June 24, know we are utterly incapable of thanking all those who had any part in making that day the blessing that it was to so many people. But we are encouraged with the words of a song that was sung for vespers - "Thank You for giving to the Lord." We will never know until we dwell in our Heavenly home who might be there because of the faithfulness of what would seem the least important here. The really good news is that everything will be noted by our Heavenly Father.

To paraphrase a thought from the book Christ's Object Lessons (Page 361) It is the faithfulness, the loyalty to God, the loving service that wins the divine approval. Our Heavenly Father does not see what we do for Him with our earthly eyes. There is no merit system. All our deeds for good are "Noted in the books of Heaven".

So thank you, thank you, thank you!!!! It wouldn't have happened without each one of you. And remember to plan to be in that great reunion in our Heavenly home where we can 'party' each day for eternity!! Blessings to each one of you.

NEW CHURCH DIRECTORIES may be picked up at the courtesy name tag booth.
