Scripture for the Day

Now it happened, on a certain day, that He got into a boat with His disciples. And He said to them, “Let us cross over to the other side of the lake.” And they launched out. But as they sailed He fell asleep. And a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were filling with water, and were in jeopardy. And they came to Him and awoke Him, saying, “Master, Master, we are perishing!” Then He arose and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and there was a calm. But He said to them, “Where is your faith?”

NO LONGER GREEK TO ME: Insights Into Revelation. NEW Wednesday morning (at 10:30 am) and evening (at 6:30 pm), chapter-by-chapter study class on the Book of Revelation, with an eye on the original Greek text. The name of the book, “Revelation,” is a translation of the title in the original New Testament Greek, Apocalypsis—the origin of the other name by which the book is known, the Apocalypse. The Greek term means an unveiling or uncovering—in other words, a revelation. You’re invited to join us and discover the fascinating keys to unlocking the meaning of the mysterious symbols, visions and descriptions in the Bible’s final book.
